A Pleasure for the Wife

The woman who does her own baking should enjoy it immensely. Baking is really a pleasure and the source of much satisfaction if the housewife has much confidence in her results. But the excellency of her baking depends almost entirely on the quality of the ingredients which she uses.

Commencement Week

The year has rolled round again and much to our surprise, we find it about time to close school and launch forth onto the great sea of life another class who have completed their preparation in the home port and now feel fully competent, each to pilot his craft on untried seas.

The class of this year consists of fourteen members. It has neither the largest nor perhaps the strongest class that Yale High has sent out but it is made up of ten boys and four girls of good ability and right ideals and ambitions who are bound to make a place for themselves in the world of tomorrow. We believe we feel justly proud of this group of boys and girls and have full confidence that the accounts which they are going to give of themselves in the years to come will be a pleasure and a satisfaction to all of us who are interested. Five of the class are planning to teach next year and are to take a college course later. Two or three will enter the university in the fall, some are to take up music and several will return to the farm. We bespeak for them all the real success in life which honest effort inspired by right purposes is bound to win.

The commencement exercises will be held in Central Hall on Thursday evening, June seventeenth at eight o'clock standard time and the patrons and friends of the schools are most heartily invited to be present. The speaker for the evening will be Ray M. Hardy of Lansing who comes to us fully recommended not only as an orator of exceptional ability but as a man with a message for his fellowmen and especially for young people. The music will be furnished by the McKanless orchestra and we shall have a man in the gallery to keep things quiet so that those immediately below may be more comfortable than is sometimes the case. The following program will be given:
